Right To Limit Use of Sensitive Personal Information

If you are a resident of California, you have the right to limit the use of your Sensitive Personal Information under the California Consumer Protection Act (CCPA).

What is Sensitive Personal Information under the CCPA?

A sub-category of Personal Information is “Sensitive Personal Information.” Sensitive Personal Information is defined as:

1. Personal Information that reveals: a social security, driver’s license, state identification card, or passport number; account log-in, financial account, debit card, or credit card number in combination with any required security or access code, password, or credentials allowing access to an account; precise geolocation; racial or ethnic origin, religious or philosophical beliefs, or union membership; the contents of mail, email, and text messages unless the business is the intended recipient of the communication; or genetic data.
2. The processing of biometric information for the purpose of uniquely identifying a consumer; Personal Information collected and analyzed concerning a consumer’s health; or Personal Information collected and analyzed concerning a consumer’s sex life or sexual orientation.

What Rights Do I have Regarding the Use of Sensitive Personal Information?

Under the CCPA, you have the right to limit the use of Sensitive Personal Information to what is necessary (and can be reasonably expected) to perform services.

How Can I Exercise My Rights?

You can exercise your rights by contacting us 1) via email at privacy@ciena.com or 2) by writing to Ciena at the below addresses in “How to Contact Us”:

We will verify and respond to your request consistent with applicable law. We may need to request additional Personal Information from you in order to verify your identity and protect against fraudulent requests.

Authorized agents may also submit requests using the contact information above. If you are an authorized agent making a request on a consumer's behalf: 1) you may be asked to provide proof of the consumer's authorization and 2) consumers may be asked to verify their identity.
